Subject: Engagement Memo - Sequestration Audit

The below memorandum is notification that we are beginning the audit of the Agency's response to the March 1, 2013 across-the-board spending cuts (also known as "sequestration"). A separate meeting notice will be sent to the individuals who need to attend the entrance conference.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks
Dave

Memorandum

June 27, 2013

To: Ronald E. Crupi
Chief Financial Officer

From: David Berry
Inspector General

Subject: FY 2013 Sequestration - Preparation, Implementation, and Impact (OIG-AMR-72)

This is to advise you that the Office of Inspector General (OIG) is initiating the subject audit. The objective of this audit is to review the National Labor Relations Board's response to the March 1, 2013 across-the-board spending cuts (also known as "sequestration"), specifically:

- How it was planned;
- How it was implemented; and
- The impact on future years' operations.

We will begin this audit with an entrance conference on July 2, 2013 at 1:00 p.m. in the Office of Inspector General Conference Room, room 9821. Field work is scheduled to be completed in October 2013, and a draft report is scheduled to be issued in January 2014.

This memorandum will be posted on the OIG page of the Agency's Web site until the report is issued. Please contact me or Robert Brennan on 273-1960 if you have any questions.
