2. Basis of the Charge (set forth a clear and concise statement of the facts constituting the alleged unfair labor practices) Everyone who has transferred to a different headquarters has retained their pay and qualifications until the 4 people from Royal Oak, transferred to Livonia and Macomb. This is a variable response given a specific set of conditions. For the past few years service and distribution, if a person transferred to another headquarters the company and the union has had no problems with each person keeping their pay and qualifications. When we met with the management team and the union, we were told that we would get our pay and qualifications, but would be at the bottom of the seniority list. We would like to have the same opportunity as the other employees. But that did not happen.
